

IN OGDEN'S SOCIETY CIRCLES

Mrs. Blaine V. Glasmann.

Pretty Wedding at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bristol.

Miss Gladys Peterson.

Mrs. Edith Fails Strunk.

Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Glasmann, 724 Twenty-fourth street, occurred the wedding of Miss Phyllis Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Owens, and Blaine V. Glasmann, son of Mrs. Evelyn Glasmann, and a member of the Standard Publishing firm.

The wedding was a quiet one, only members of the two families, numbering about fifteen, being present. Rev. John Edward Carver performed the ceremony in the parlor of the Glasmann home and immediately following dinner was served in the dining room where a beautiful bouquet of pink chrysanthemums graced the center of the dining table and a finely prepared dinner awaited.

Mr. and Mrs. Glasmann are well known young people of Ogden and their friends extend the heartiest of congratulations. The happy couple will be at home after November 15 on Brinker avenue. Candy and cigars were in order at The Standard office today.

Agricultural College Players Present One of Moliere's Plays.

Moliere, the great French satirist of the Seventeenth century, was introduced to the students of the Utah Agricultural college last Friday by the Periwig Players, an aggregation of Aggie Theatricals. The Periwig Players chose as their medium, "A Doctor in Spite of Himself," first produced in Paris in 1665 and one of the best Moliere comedies. It is a delicious satire on the medical profession and from the opening act when the shrewd old peasant Scaparrone taught his wife love by means of a candle to the final curtain when the same Scaparrone was saved from a most embarrassing hanging by a lucky accident it called forth storms of applause from the student audience.

The Periwig Players represent the best material produced by amateur theatricals at the Utah Agricultural college. Each year worthy members of the college casts are given membership in the club. Thus a very able organization of amateur players has been built up. The existence of the Periwig club is largely due to the efforts of Miss Sara Hunstman, professor of dramatic art at the college, under whose direction all college productions are put on. Miss Hunstman had direct charge of the coaching of "A Doctor in Spite of Himself."

The play was cast as follows: Scaparrone, Elroy Christensen; Geronte, D. E. Robinson; Leonore, E. Stanley; Prescott, Valerie; Cousin Wright, Lucinda; W. L. Poulter; Thibault, Nancy Finch; Martine, Mae Edwards; Lucinda, Claire Cardon; Jacqueline, Leora Thatcher; Robert, Eleanor Amussen. The cast was very well balanced and the parts were excellently sustained.

"A Doctor by Compulsion" was presented to the students free by the Periwig Players following their custom of producing some excellent bit of dramatic art to further greater interest in the spoken drama. The annual Periwig production is usually presented on the college campus, but stormy weather this year forced an indoor performance.

In the past the club has presented, among other things, "The Boer" by Tscheloff; "Hyaline Halvey" by Lady Gregory; "The Shadow of the Glen" by J. M. Synge; "Sam Average" by Percy Mackaye; "The Glittering Gate" and "The Last Silk Hat" by Lord Dunsany; "The Postscriptum" by Anderson; "Moby-Dick" by Herstein; "Sweethearts" by Gilbert; and "The Romancers" by Rostrand.

FOURTH WARD PARTY.

Next Thursday, November 13, in the Fourth ward hall there will be given an old-folks party where a number of the old-fashioned dances will be included on the program. A good time is assured all.

MASQUERADE BALL.

A masquerade ball, the second event of a series of winter events, is announced by C. E. Ledbetter, manager of the Utah Hot Springs. This is to be held at the popular resort on Thanksgiving night and Mr. Ledbetter is making arrangements for entertaining even a larger crowd than attended the successful Halloween frolic.

There will be special music for dancing, with decorations and refreshments in keeping with the day.

Thursday at noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Bristol occurred the wedding of Miss Edna May Miller and Frank Lafayette McLean, Rev. and John Edward Carver performing the ceremony. Mrs. William Anderson Corn played the wedding marches by Mendelssohn and Lohengrin.

The bride was attended by matron of honor, Mrs. La Clade Perdue, who carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums, while the groom was attended by Wendell Witney. Little Betty Bristol acted as ring bearer, carrying a bouquet of roses. During the ceremony Mrs. Corn played Chaconne Triste (Tchaikowsky) and the "Bridal Chorus" from Wagner's Lohengrin.

The Bristol home was beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion. In the drawing room, white chrysanthemums and green ferns were used, while in the hall pink roses and white lilies held prominence.

The bride was attractive in a suit of blue broadcloth with a feathered hat of lighter blue. She carried a large bouquet of cream colored chrysanthemums tied with white satin ribbon. Mrs. McLean is a Washington girl and nurse, who came to Ogden two years ago. Since then she has been residing at the Bristol home. The groom, Frank McLean, is a well known Salt Lake man, and has returned recently from overseas. Immediately after the wedding a breakfast was given by Mr. and Mrs. Bristol in honor of the young couple. The dining room was especially attractive in baskets of pink roses, while the table was picturesquely beautiful. A silver basket of roses formed the centerpiece, while pink candles, tied with maline were arranged here and there. The bridal cake and groom cake added to the adornment. Dainty hand painted place cards were laid for the guests, and a delicious breakfast was served. After the breakfast the young couple left for their honeymoon, the destination of which is unknown. Mr. and Mrs. McLean will make their home in Salt Lake at 255 East Fifth street during the first part of December.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Miss Maxine Fox and Master Charles Hetzel were 7 years of age Wednesday, and in honor of these two birthdays, a party was given at the Fox home, 2516 Parker avenue, when about thirty little folks were entertained. Mrs. J. J. Malone, superintendent of the Fox home, was the hostess. The rooms of the Fox home were pretty with bright balloons, and the little guests spent a merry time. Daintily prepared refreshments were served by Mrs. Fox, assisted by Ruth Pingree, Nellie O'Keefe and Hope Fox. Following are the names of the little folks present: Charles Hetzel, Barbara Browning, Roberta McBride, Norma Hill, Junior Carroll, Ralph Roberts, Mary Louise Dods, Elgie Gill, Lewis Gill, Dorothy Corey, Doree Dods, Rosalie Gill, Virginia Roberts, Geraldine Leonard, Eugenia Smith, Marion Smith, Mary Frances Hetzel, Dobby Hetzel, John Ellis, Charles Stover, Junior Stokes, Emma Leonard, Ruth Leonard, Marion Ellis, Eleanor McFarland, Melba Schade, Edna O'Neil, Evelyn Howell, Lucille McFarland and Maxine Fox.

AT EAGLES' HALL.

A very prettily arranged party and banquet was given last Wednesday at Eagles' Hall by the L. S. of B. L. E. and with their Bros. of Perseverance No. 98 and their families as their guests. The afternoon was spent in playing cards and dancing. The children gave a musical program after which all marched to the banquet room where two tables were decorated with appropriate Halloween novelties, and placed at the end of each table. The centerpiece was a pumpkin filled into the shape of a basket and filled with large white chrysanthemums. Fifty guests enjoyed the luncheon which was served by the hostess.

FOR MISS FERN HILL.

Thursday evening, November 9, Mrs. T. H. Jordan entertained at a parcel shower in honor of her sister, Miss Fern Hill, a November bride-to-be. A very pleasant evening was spent by those present. FORMER OGDEN GIRL WEDDED.

From the Mackay Miner we note the marriage of Miss Ethel Fails, former member of the Standard business office force. Miss Fails is well known in Ogden and has many friends here who will wish her happiness and prosperity.

From the Miner we are reproducing the following items regarding the wedding, which occurred October 28, in Mackay:

"On Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Sarah A. Strunk, in this city, occurred the marriage of two of Mackay's most popular young people, when Miss Ethel Fails became the charming sweet bride of Mr. Raymond A. Strunk. Judge M. D. Kilgore, a close friend and business associate of the groom, performed the simple ceremony which united these two lives. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the near relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties. All enjoyed the wedding breakfast immediately after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Strunk departed on Tuesday's train for a month's honeymoon through California, and wish to state they will be at home to their many friends in Mackay after December the 20th. The bride formerly resided in Mackay, where she was employed as stenographer and clerk at the offices of the Empire Copper company, and during her residence here endeared herself to a large circle of friends. The groom has spent most of his life in Mackay, graduating from the Mackay schools and later from the Idaho Technical Institute at Pocatello, and since that time has been employed in several positions of trust, leaving the office of auditor for the Empire Copper company to serve with Uncle Sam overseas. He has been successful in mining and business ventures, and is one of the rising young business men of Central Idaho. The Miner extends hearty congratulations and best wishes to this most deserving young couple."

Making Life Merry.

"The past week has been a round of social events in honor of Miss Ethel Fails, whose marriage to Mr. Raymond Strunk took place Tuesday morning of this week. On last Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Al. Baker and Miss Pauline Strunk gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Fails at the Strunk residence. A large number of lady friends responded, bringing with them beautiful gifts for the bride-to-be. A dainty luncheon was served, the color scheme being pink and white. The afternoon was spent at needlework and various games, rounding out a fine afternoon. On Monday afternoon Mrs. N. H. Farrell gave a pretty party in honor of Miss Fails, to which only the most intimate friends of the bride-to-be were invited. Music made the afternoon a pleasant one, and before departing for their homes, the guests were invited to the dining room and were served a delicious repast. In the center of the table were beautiful, long stemmed white chrysanthemums with white satin ribbons reaching from the candleholders to each plate, ending in a huge bow. A miniature bride graced the table and under soft, colored lights, the scene was a pleasing one.

Mr. Louis Hansen entertained a few of his friends at a fried chicken supper last Sunday night, in honor of his friends, Miss Ethel Fails and Mr. Raymond Strunk.

MASK PARTY.

Miss Mary Clements entertained at a mask Halloween party at her home on Lincoln avenue. The costumes were varied and very pretty. The rooms were decorated in the Halloween colors, black and orange, and pumpkins were lit up all over the house. The evening was spent in funny games, also singing and dancing.
